

TELEVISION is Here!

Tomorrow, November 25, will be a historical day in Seattle. Then, for the first time, Station KRSC-TV will bring the magic of television to the people of Seattle and the Puget Sound country. This will be the first regular broadcast north of San Francisco and west of Salt Lake City. KRSC-TV will show productions by both the Columbia Broadcasting System and the National Broadcasting Company.

On the following pages, Seattle radio dealers and their distributors have joined with The Times to present news and pictures of the new world that television offers you.

KRSC-TV will televise and broadcast the All City Champion-Wenatchee Football game direct from Memorial Stadium at 1:45 p. m. Thanksgiving Day.
