

Violator Says He Never Will Drive Again

Sidney D. Cash, 41, who pleaded guilty yesterday in Justice Court of driving while his license was suspended, said he "never will drive an automobile again."

Cash, a ship's cook, 86 Virginia St., was fined $50 by Justice of the Peace Roy De Grief and was sentenced to six days in the county jail, with credit given for six days already served.

Patrolman R. H. Norton, Jr., arrested Cash December 18 in Empire Way near Eddy Street for driving without a license.

Deputy Prosecutor Lawrence K. McDonnell introduced evidence that Cash's license was suspended for six months July 27, 1954, on a reckless-driving conviction and had not been reinstated.

"I don't intend ever to drive again," Cash told the court. "It's not a pleasure, anyway; it's a chore."

Violent death ended two other cases that were pending in Justice Court.

A charge against Daniel Burr Korpe, 20, truck driver, 3229 22nd Av. W., of driving while his license was denied, was stricken when the court learned that Korpe was injured fatally in a traffic accident last Saturday afternoon.

Korpe was a passenger on a motorcycle that skidded and struck an automobile in Columbian Way near Airport Way.

A charge against Kenneth W. Mann, 20, electrician, 2409 E. Prospect St., of driving in violation of the State Uniform Safety-Responsibility Act, was stricken when McDonnell informed the court that Mann was stabbed to death in Portland, Ore., Monday.

Paul Richard Tullberg of Superior, Wis., forfeited $75 bail on a charge of violating the Safety-Responsibility Act.

Robert A. Lindley, 25, of Tacoma, forfeited $50 bail on a negligent-driving charge.

Persons convicted of violating the Safety-Responsibility Act—Donald G. Clough, 18, airman, 8228 Interlake av., fined $75; three days in jail, with an additional 20 days in jail, suspended.

Reckless driving and driving without a license (driving while under the influence of liquor stricken)—William L. Frazier, 67, laborer, Lake Morton, fined $70, license suspended for 90 days; ten days in jail, suspended.

Reckless driving and no registration certificate (driving while under the influence of liquor and driving without a driver's license stricken)—Gusta H. Nelson, 26, merchant seaman, Issaquah, fined $65, license suspended for 90 days; 13 days in jail, suspended. Nelson had forfeited bail on the same charges January 19, but the bail was reinstated by Judge DeGrief.

Driving with faulty equipment and negligent driving (amended from failure to yield right of way)—Ernest Person, truck driver, 8107 1/2 S. E. 28th St., Mercer Island, fined $50. He gave notice of appeal.
