Sunday Highlights

8:30 A. M.

Eastside Schools (KFKF): News about Bellevue and Lake Washington school systems and tape recordings from School Board meetings. (And, if you will permit editorial comment here, a rather unique public service feature by this station. How many other radio stations care enough about the schools in their coverage area to assign a newsman to such a beat and cut out a half hour of music to present a constructive, local show? And how many School Board members are willing to have their meetings tape recorded?)

10:00

Morning Program (KRAB): Lesser-known works by Beethoven, Haydn and Handel are heard.

Noon

Symphony of the Air (KXA): Concluding work in the hour is "Der Rosenkavalier Suite," by Strauss.

2:00 P. M.

Symphony Concert (KUOW): "Burleske" by Strauss is included in a concert from Orchestra Hall by the Chicago Symphony.

2:30

Musical Footlights (KETO-AM): Music from Rudolph Friml operettas is featured.

3:30

Symphony Concert (KETO-AM): Stravinsky's "Firebird Suite" is included in a concert from Severance Hall by the Cleveland Orchestra.

4:00

Changes and Challenges (KUOW): A discussion of the legal problems in changing King County government is presented.

6:00

Rhapsody ((KLSN): Hey, look, you don't have to wait until New Year's Eve after all. Guy Lombardo and the Royal Canadians are featured.

7:00

China Today (KUOW): Negotiating with the Chinese Communists is discussed. And so are recent trends in Chinese foreign policy.

8:00

RAI Opera (KUOW): Handel's "Rodelinda."

9:00

Seattle Symphony Previews (KETO-AM): Lorin Hollander discusses his performance of Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 2.

Opera Tonight (KLSN): Offenbach's "Tales of Hoffman."
