

SUNDAY PROGRAMS

Wayne Newton, left, and Don Clark, KIRO-AM helped Mrs. James Ketner celebrate her selection in the radio station's "Dreams of an Everyday Housewife" contest. Items Mrs. Ketner was awarded included furnishings for a boy's room, record sets by Glen Campbell and Wayne Newton, a Hollywood tour and tickets to the Wayne Newton concert.

Broadcast Schedules Altered

By VICTOR STREDICKE
Radio Editor, The Times

Two stations altered their broadcast schedules in the past week. KOMO, as expected, increased its operation to 24 hours a day, 6 days a week. A new segment, called Night-time Seattle, features the same soft, listenable music as in the daytime hours, plus repeats of daytime features such as recreation reports, stock-market news and weather.

Host for the show, from 11 p. m. to midnight until 5 a. m. is Rocky Shay, who has done vacation and weekend work for KOMO, KSND and Yakima radio stations.

KRAB cut back its broadcast schedule to what is apparently six hours a day. The station is now scheduled to be on the air from 6 p. m. to midnight. Some exceptions exist (for the time being at least) such as the late-night talk shows on Tuesday and Wednesday. (See Page 15.)

Gary Wingert said the cutback was (1) necessary to allow construction of new control-room facilities (2) advisable for financial reasons and (3) desirable so the station staff would get something of a vacation.

RADIO AT RANDOM

Night Call, the national call-in radio program logged its record number of busy signals, the New York Telephone Co. reports, the evening that Stokley Carmichael appeared—64,440. Rap Brown on a later program followed closely with 61,100. . . . Bill Schultz of Seattle recalls that once in the history of KRKO, a vocal trio performing on KJR, and who billed themselves as "18 feet of harmony" attempted to operate the station, then KFBL. . . . Those entrepreneurs who put together a computer-created boxing tournament are back, with a "Dream World Series." Theoretically, at least, listeners are to nominate their all-time favorite players from each league for the games, which will be presented September 23. The series is scheduled for presentation on KGY, Olympia.

TO THE PHILIPPINES

Del Olney, silver-throated morning man on KEXI, left the station last week with what he says are mixed emotions.

The nature of a radio announcer is to travel a bit, yet Olney had been outside the country only once — to Hawaii, "and that's a state now." He nevertheless will move to Manila this month, examining the radio scene there with intent to buy or build a radio station for Philippine businessmen.

TWISTING THE DIAL

The Dudley-Schonely Report on KVI is the only 15-minute sports show in Pacific Northwest radio. . . . One of this area's major stations is beefing up its news coverage in the afternoons, and by fall may well have a block of news and features 80 minutes long — "getting a five-minute jump on KIRO-AM" . . . The F. C. C. has ordered FM stations broadcasting both horizontally and vertically signals that they can use only one of the wattage figures to impress folks with their signal strength. Boys on the AM band (limited to 5,000, 10,000 and 50,000 watts) are getting inferiority complexes over such published power figures as 200,000 watts. . . . Don Clark at KIRO has been asking listeners for plat-suggestions for Pat Paulsen in his campaign drive. Best two items so far: Encourage open featherbedding for all future candidates to ease fence straddling. Appoint Tiny Tim as United States ambassador to Utah.
